RFID - Auburn University Spring Supplier RFID Workshop

Auburn University is hosting a Spring Supplier RFID Workshop on March 26-27, 2023, designed to help educate companies working toward RFID compliance within their organizations on how to RFID tag products and manage the encoding of serialized data on the tags. Anyone who is currently charged with ensuring bar code compliance, as well as IT managers, packaging engineers and others who support RFID tagging programs, will benefit from attending. Here is a link with more information: <https://www.rfidworkshop.org/>.

San Bernardino Fulfillment Center (SBFC) Offset Fees

Nordstrom expects shipments to all locations to follow the published Compliance Standards. Non-compliant shipments arriving at SBFC (FC 879) will incur expense offset fees beginning March 6th, 2023. Note there are no changes to the compliance standards set forth on this site, Nordstrom is just now exercising it's ability to charge for non-compliance at SBFC similar to our other sites.

When will the change occur:

- Shipments / POs arriving on or after March 6, 2023 will be subject to expense offset fees for compliance violations
